

HBA of Raleigh-Wake County Recognized for Excellence During 2015

Raleigh, N.C., June 21, 2016 – The Home Builders Association of Raleigh-Wake County (HBA) will be recognized with two Association Excellence Awards through the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) in July.

“We have been recognized by our peers as the best in these categories,” said Paul Kane, the executive vice president of the HBA. “That speaks loudly to the talent and quality of the staff and members of the HBA.”

The Association Excellence Awards (AEA) is an annual program designed to recognize the outstanding accomplishments of state and local HBAs and executive officers in the field of association management.

This awards program is designed to show the best of the best home builders association, grouped by similar size. The two awards the HBA of Raleigh-Wake County is receiving are:

- Best Revenue Effort - Non Parade, Tour, or Show– “The Foundation Club - A Truly Awesome Sponsorship Program”
- Best HBA Partnership/Coalition – “Triangle Community Coalition - A Powerful Partnership”

Kane will receive the actual awards on July 14 at the upcoming Association Leadership Institute.

Like-sized HBAs compete against each other for the “best of” educational initiatives, communications projects, non-dues revenue generation for programs such as home and garden shows and parades, community service and other categories.

The winning entries will become part of the online file share so that other executives and associations across the country can access and learn from them in order to provide better service to their own members and community.
