Winners Announced for Parade of Homes, N.C.’s Largest Open House
Homes are Open for One Final Weekend

RALEIGH, N.C. (October 13, 2016) -- Winners of the 51st Annual Parade of Homes, presented by the Home Builders Association of Raleigh–Wake County (HBA), were announced during the Awards Gala Thursday evening, October 13, at the PNC Arena.

Almost 800 builders and guests attended the gala as awards were presented across 19 categories. The 2016 Parade of Homes will run for one final weekend on Oct. 14-16, from 12 p.m. -5 p.m. This annual tour is the best way to view the latest homes and the newest communities throughout the Triangle.

More than 250 homes will welcome visitors. Many homes are decorated and showcase great ideas and the hottest design trends. The tour is free, self-guided and open to the public.

Parade homes were judged prior to the first open house weekend and winners were presented for 1st, 2nd & 3rd places, gold, silver and bronze awards respectively. The best special features were also recognized.

“This year, the gold, silver and bronze winners will also be posted online after the awards dinner so people can to plan to tour these homes over the final weekend.” said Gaye Orr, MIRM, president and partner at Coldwell Banker Advantage New Homes, LLC and the chair for the 2016 Parade of Homes Committee for Wake County.

Homes featured in the Triangle Parade will range in price from $167,990-$2 million.
