Winners Announced for Parade of Homes, N.C.'s Largest Open House

RALEIGH, N.C. (October 2018) -- Winners of the 53rd Annual Parade of Homes, presented by the Home Builders Association of Raleigh–Wake County (HBA), were announced during the Awards Gala on Monday, October 15, at the Reynolds Coliseum.

Over 860 builders and guests attended the awards gala. Parade homes were judged prior to the first open house weekend in the beginning of October and winners were presented for 1st, 2nd & 3rd places, gold, silver and bronze awards, across 22 categories. The best special features were also recognized.

More than 275 homes welcome visitors during the annual open house. Many homes are decorated and showcase great ideas and the hottest design trends. The tour is free, self-guided and open to the public.

The gold, silver and bronze winners will be noted online at TriangleParadeofHomes.com.

Homes featured in the Triangle Parade range in price from $200,000-$2.5 million. Visit triangleparadeofhomes.com to find information on all the homes on tour, as well as noted winner and links to the mobile app.
